

WHAT'S ON

January 2019

Saturday 5th

KARAOKE DISCO with Simon Maycock

Yes, this was a special request. So, if you think you're a budding Beyonce or even a superannuated Sinatra, show us what you've got. I'll be in the John Boyt bar inserting cotton wool into my ears ...

Saturday 12th

DIRTY TRICKS

Three piece band that always goes down well - probably due to playing some very unusual songs – a number by AC/DC might easily be followed by "Video killed the radio star"

Saturday 19th

NORTHERN SOUL DISCO

DJ Barry Gray returns with his record players (yes, really!) for the first soul night of the year.

Saturday 26th

THE WISEGUYS

Never sure whether they're meant to be "The Wiseguys" or is it still "Mr Wiseguy" but you know who I'm talking about. Due to limited free dates in their busy diary, they're back with us after only three months, so enjoy!

Sunday 27th PAUL HAMMOND - lunchtime

Coming up in February ...

I'm still trying to make my brain accept that it's almost Christmas and now I'm trying to think about February! There'll be a Skittles night on the 2nd (bookings taken from mid-January), a timely return for tribute act Stereo Queen (as Bohemian Rhapsody does well at the box office) on the 9th and a return for the Brass Monkeys band on the 23rd.
